1A. CLASSES OF SERVICE

Residential Service (Rate Schedule No. 1 and 1A)

Service to customers for residential purposes by individual meter in a single family dwelling, or in an individual apartment, or to not over three families served by a single meter (one customer) in a multiple family dwelling, or portion thereof.

Categorically, residential service shall be as follows:

a. Heating and/or Cooling

Where gas is used to supply the principal space heating and/or air cooling requirements of a dwelling, including any other residential uses. Where gas is used in conjunction with service to commercial or industrial premises, the service shall be classified Commercial and Industrial service.

b. Non-Heating and Non-Cooling

Where gas is not used to supply the principal space heating and/or air cooling requirements, but is used for any other residential purposes.

Commercial and Industrial Service (Rate Schedule No. 2 and 2A)

Service to commercial and/or industrial customers, including schools, churches, embassies, rest homes, boarding houses, rooming houses, etc., supplied through one meter or a battery of meters.

Categorically, commercial and industrial service shall be as follows:

a. Heating and/or Cooling

Where gas is used to supply the principal space heating and/or air cooling requirements, including any other commercial and/or industrial uses. Also includes gas used to supply the principal space heating and/or cooling requirements of a multiple-dwelling building comprised of four or more dwelling units when the non-heating and non-cooling requirements of all dwelling units are individually metered and billed under Rate Schedule No. 1 and 1A.

ISSUED: January 12, 2004

For service rendered on and after July 1, 2003
